BIG-CITY VIBES, CULTURE AND NATURE IN ONE BREATH.

Welcome to a district that breathes history and shapes the future – where world culture lives side by side with neighborhood charm. Majestic boulevards meet quiet green paths, grand opera meets small backyard stages – and people from all over the world meet a lively, welcoming community.

Whether it's your first visit or you've called it home for years: In Charlottenburg-Wilmersdorf you'll experience Berlin again and again – open, diverse, surprising.

And not only through its many places: renowned events add even more life and energy to the district.

Cultural Diversity

From world-famous museums and charming galleries to theatres that tell Berlin's stories - past and present - this is where cultural life truly thrives.

Shopping & Fashion

From Kurfürstendamm, Germany's No. 1 boulevard for shopping and experiences, to small designer studios hidden in local neighborhoods - where trends meet tradition.

Food & Culinary Scene

Street food meets fine dining, coffee houses meet craft beer - a culinary journey around the globe, right in the heart of Berlin.

Jewish Heritage

Sites of remembrance and encounter: synagogues, memorials, and cultural festivals connecting history with the present.

Innovation, Start-ups & Science

Research centers, incubators, and creative networks are shaping the future here. The Charlottenburg Campus is one of Europe's largest inner-city university complexes and a major hub for science and culture.

Historic Landmarks

The Kaiser Wilhelm Memorial Church - Berlin's most famous monument against war and destruction - the iconic Charlottenburg Palace, and other architectural gems tell stories of the past.

Nature & Recreation

Grunewald Forest, Lietzensee, Teufelsberg - green oases for a breath of fresh air and a moment of calm, just minutes away from the city buzz.

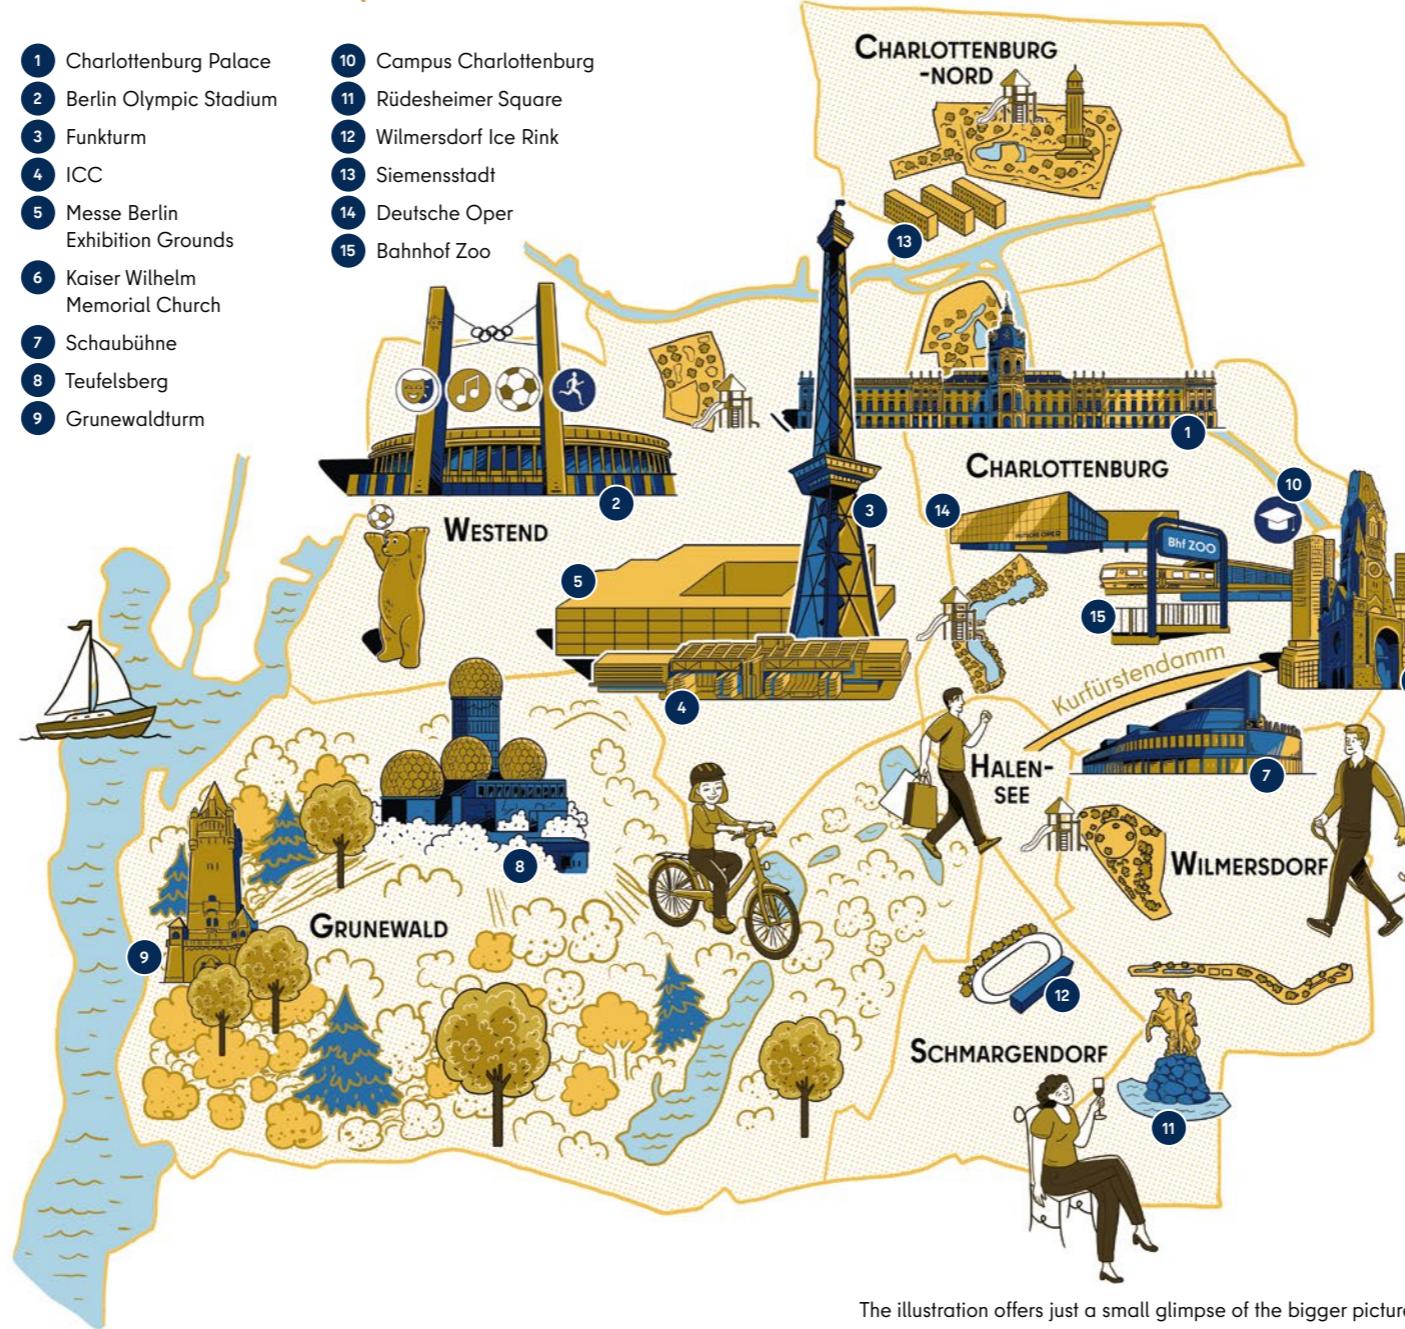

Sports & Events

Experience world-class sports and entertainment at Berlin's Olympic Stadium, the exhibition grounds, and many smaller venues throughout the district.
